Rogaland Kaffehus is proud to be a partner in the Restauration and Crossings200 project, which recreates the historic journey of the first Norwegian emigrants to North-America.

As part of this cultural endeavor, Rogaland Kaffehus has created a special coffee blend for the journey from Stavanger to New York. This coffee, crafted with care for quality and sustainability, symbolizes the migration that shaped both Norwegian and American history.

The collaboration highlights Rogaland Kaffehus' commitment to celebrating Norwegian heritage while honoring the 200th anniversary of this significant migration. By offering a tailored coffee, the company helps participants connect with the past while enjoying a product that reflects tradition and craftsmanship.

This partnership blends historical commemoration with modern collaboration, showcasing the value of preserving cultural stories through local engagement.

Sailor Roast can be found at husets.no or contacted via restauration.no.

For sale within Norway only (and delivered domestically). No shipping/delivery abroad (The buyer is responsible for all transportation, including necessary documents, at their own expense and risk).

A well-rounded, full-bodied coffee with balanced acidity and a delightful blend of chocolate, nuts, and berries.
